

STORMS RAGING IN PHILIPPINES

Country Is Flooded As a Result.

Lines of Communication Cut Off.

Troops On Outposts Suffer—Nothing Serious and There Is No Material Increase in Sickness Reported—Unable Yet to Coal Returning Transports—Presidents Cablegram of July 1, Made Public—Comments Patriotism of Volunteers For Performing Willing Service Through a Severe Campaign.

Washington, July 20.—[Special]—The following was received from Gen. Otis this morning: "Storms are still prevailing, though the barometer is rising, indicating improved weather conditions. The country is flooded and troops on outposts have suffered and the former lines of communication have been cut in some instances. It is not serious and there is no material increase in sickness reported. We are unable yet to coal the returning transports."

Washington, July 20.—[Special]—A cablegram sent General Otis by President McKinley July 1, was made public today.

It commends the patriotism of the volunteers for performing willing service through a severe campaign after the time of their enlistment had expired, and in recognition thereof, he will recommend that a special medal of honor be given the officers and soldiers of the Eighth Corps.

Big "Injun" Gen. Anderson.

Cincinnati, July 20.—In an interview here this morning, Gen. Anderson declared that he could have finished the war long ago if he had not been held back by Gen. Otis.

He says Gen. Lawton could have done the same if Otis had allowed him to go out and fight the rebels.

Manila, July 20.—During the last two days heavy rains have caused serious floods along the north and south lines of intrenchments occupied by the American troops.

At Paranaque the bridge has been washed away, thus cutting off communication with the forces of Gen. Grant about Bacoor. The telegraph wires are also all down. The men who are repairing the bridge are working up to their armpits in water and have sent an urgent request to Manila for boats to assist them in their task.

North of Manila the water is running over the bed of the railroad in various places, so that all trains have been abandoned.

The men on outpost duty about the American lines at San Fernando are being placed by means of boats, except in some localities, where the water is shallow enough for the soldiers to wade, carrying their arms and ammunition above their heads.

The work along the railroad is difficult, owing to the high water, so that it is impossible to say when trains can be run again between Manila and the northern posts.

Since the rainy season set in the number of sick soldiers arriving at the hospital is measurably increased.

Gen. MacArthur, in command at San Fernando, is on the alert, expecting an attack from the insurgents, who now display renewed activity, deeming themselves safe from pursuit because of the floods and the impassable roads.

NO PUBLIC INQUIRY AS TO GEN. OTIS

President Maintains His Desire to Ignore the Manila Protest.

Washington, July 20.—Comment in administration circles indicates clearly that it is the desire of the president to ignore the protest of the newspaper correspondents at Manila. It is stated authoritatively by cabinet officers that the president will not direct an open and exhaustive investigation of the charges of the correspondents. It is intimated, however, that there will be a quiet inquiry in the course of time, as the president cannot consistently ignore the issue entirely. While it may be considered expedient to suppress the controversy between Gen. Otis and the correspondents, army officers who know the former as a strict disciplinarian say they cannot believe he will permit the matter to go unnoticed.

They expect the general, unless controlled by the administration, to accept the issue and assert his authority under the articles of war.

Some of the president's advisers are urging that for political reasons there should be an investigation that would relieve the administration, even though it result disastrously for Gen. Otis. They believe that the people of the country will not be satisfied with a mere denial from Gen. Otis or from any official in Washington, but will demand a searching inquiry to determine whether the charges are well founded.

An officer who served under Admiral Dewey on the Olympia, and who has reached Washington by the Pacific route, stated that there was considerable friction between the naval and military commanders at Manila, and that Admiral Dewey became very much discouraged because of Gen. Otis' methods and plans. He says that the admiral does not consider the general as a competent officer for the position.

Oregon's Losses Were Light.

Washington, July 20.—The war department has received the field returns of the Second Oregon, who have just returned from Manila. The returns show that of the fifty-six commissioned officers six were promoted from the ranks and nine resigned or were discharged, leaving forty-seven officers remaining to be mustered out. The enlisted men numbered 1,316. Of these 208 were discharged, sixteen were killed or died of wounds, thirty-three died of disease, and two deserted; a total of 250, leaving 1,057 enlisted men to be mustered out, or a total of 1,104 officers and men. This shows that forty-nine men were killed or died of wounds and disease, a percentage of 3½ per cent.

"CRUCIFIED" SAY ALGER'S FRIENDS

"JUDGMENT BY DEFAULT," THE CRY OF ENEMIES.

The More Conservative See in the Resignation His Political Sagacity—Not to Remain and Prepare Report—News Received With Delight By Army Officers in Havana.

Washington, July 20.—[Special]—"Crucified," is the comment today in part by those in sympathy with Secretary Alger.

"Judgment by default," is the cry of those who are inclined to view his course with contempt.

Still others, who are more conservative, see in the resignation Alger's political sagacity.

Alger said this morning that he would not remain here to prepare his official report.

He will in all probability go to Michigan and begin an active canvass.

Army Officers Pleased.

Havana, July 20.—[Special]—The news of Secretary Alger's resignation has created a great surprise in Havana. It is viewed with satisfaction by the army officers.

Alger's Resignation Accepted.

Washington, July 20.—[Special]—President McKinley this afternoon accepted Secretary Alger's resignation, to take effect August 1.

BUTLER BROTHERS RIDE FAST

Nat. Wins the World's Record For One Mile—Time 2:01-1-5.

Nat. Butler, one of the many cyclists who was in Janesville last week, broke the world's record for one mile, single paced, at Ottumwa, Iowa, yesterday. The time was 2:01-1-5.

In the mile professional at the same place, Tom Butler, who was present at the local meet, won out in 2:02. Which only goes to show that they are capable of cutting out a fast mile when they are compelled to.

On the first day here it was different, no time limit being set and no pace provided. Had this been done, the trick of yesterday might have been turned on the local track.

In this connection it might be well to state that the Canadian champion, McLeod, was a disappointed man when he learned that the races were off, as he was to have gone against the world's quarter mile record. That he would have beaten it there is no doubt as the track would have allowed him a straightaway course and the wind would have been behind him.

MAYOR WILL SIGN CONTRACT

When Guarantee Is Signed Against Infringements

A meeting between Mayor Richardson, City Atty. Burpee and G. W. Welch, representing the F. C. Austin Mfg. company, was held this afternoon in the city clerk's office in regard to the new stone crusher purchased by the city. It was claimed by a rival company that the Austin people were infringing on certain patents and the local officials were warned against buying their machine. In a telegram received by Mr. Welch his company instructs him to "fully guarantee against infringement," and the meeting of this afternoon, was held to draw up such an agreement. After this is done the mayor will sign the contract.

Barker's Corners

Barker's Corners, July 20.—The remains of the late Mrs. Virgil Pope were buried in Mount Pleasant cemetery Thursday of this week. Ernest and Elsie Taylor attended an ice cream social at Quirk Peck's, Wednesday night of this week. George Griffy, Gug Griffy and wife, Elsie Taylor, Pearl Stockmen, May Parks and others from here attended the grocer's picnic at Whitefish bay. Shoemaker Bros. have purchased a new threshing machine. Miss Jessie Spencer is visiting at her uncle's Joseph Flager. The owner of the White Lily creamery has had a new smoke stack put up. Miss Margie is suffering from a badly sprained arm.

When crediting a man with his good intentions it is well to remember that in order to get them cashed they must be backed by deeds.

MISSING KENOSHA GIRL IS LOCATED

IN CARE OF SISTERS AT RACINE.

Had Been Missing Since Last Saturday—Oconto Young Man Cut to the Heart But Lives—Child Near Eau Claire Accidentally Shot Itself—State News.

Kenosha, Wis., July 20.—A telephone message from Racine last evening says that Miss Lizzie Berens, who disappeared from her home last Saturday, is in St. Mary's hospital in that city, under the keeping of the sisters. The Rev. Father Elskamp, the priest of the North Side church, informed the police this afternoon that he knew of the girl's whereabouts, and that she was in good hands and would eventually return to her parents. To the reporters, however, he absolutely refused to say anything except to assure them that the girl had not committed suicide.

According to the story, Miss Berens went to Racine last Sunday in company with a young man whom she wanted to marry. This they could not do as they had secured no license. As she was unwilling to return home, the young man, it is said, then took her to the hospital. At first she refused to give her name and address, but subsequently confessed to the sisters that she had been unhappy at home because her parents had refused her permission to the marriage with the man she loved.

James A. Rappe in Milwaukee

Milwaukee, Wis., July 20.—James A. Rappe, the Marinette veteran, who is making a bicycle trip from that city to Philadelphia to attend the national encampment of the Grand Army at Philadelphia, is in Milwaukee. He will leave for Chicago this morning. Mr. Rappe expects to make thirty miles a day and says he will arrive in Philadelphia about Sept. 4. He will stay in Chicago over Sunday to visit his daughters. He is in good condition, having had only one accident. He was thrown from his wheel near Cedarburg, but came down right side up and continued his journey at once. A year ago Mr. Rappe walked from Marinette to Cincinnati to attend the national encampment.

Out to the Heart But Lives.

Oconto, Wis., July 20.—An extraordinary amount of interest has been aroused in the medical profession in this vicinity over the case of Julius Oepke, who was injured some time ago in a sawmill at Gillett. The young man fell on a circular saw and was cut across the chest so that his heart and lungs were exposed, only a thin tissue remaining uncovered over his heart. The action of these organs was plainly visible, and the case has gone down on record as the only one in which a man has been able to see the actual beating of his own heart. Owing to the splendid physical condition of the patient, he is rapidly recovering, and will soon be able to resume his ordinary occupations.

Wisconsin Pensions Granted.

Washington, D. C., July 20.—Additional—William Cole, Milton, $4 to $12. Restoration and additional—Jotham L. Warner, died, Nekooosa, $6 to $8. Increase—Special, July 11—Joseph Grinnam, National home, Milwaukee, $6 to $12; Russell Lamkins, Waupaca, $14 to $17; Frank H. Gerard, Wisconsin Veterans' home, Waupaca, $12 to $17. Original widows, etc.—Levin Warner, Nekooosa, $8. War with Spain—Original—Charles F. Flickinger, Monroe, $10.

Medical Department Details.

Madison, Wis., July 20.—Surgeon General Edwards of the National guard, and Surgeons J. B. Whiting, Jr., of Janesville, attached to the First regiment, Moulding of Watertown, attached to the Second regiment, and Grannis of Menomonie, attached to the Third regiment, had a conference here yesterday to arrange the details of the medical department during the approaching encampment.

Car Robbers Plead Guilty

Portage, Wis., July 20.—George Gessler and Leonard Hofkamp, arrested at Columbus June 23, for robbing freight cars on the Milwaukee road, pleaded guilty and were sentenced by Judge Stroud to one year in the state reformatory. They are the first men sent to that institution from this county. Chicago officials say that the men belonged to a South avenue gang of freight car robbers.

Child Shoots Itself

Eau Claire, Wis., July 20.—Clark Leslie Allison, aged 7, the adopted son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Clark of Otter Creek Mills, accidentally shot himself while playing with a revolver he had taken from the safe in the mill office yesterday. A jury rendered a verdict of accidental death.

Found Dead in a Park

Oshkosh, Wis., July 20.—Two small boys yesterday found a body lying in the grass in North park. It was identified as that of Frank Koebler, a florist. He had a basket of soil near him and his cane was lying within reach. He was seen going to the park yesterday afternoon and it is believed he died some time late yesterday. Blood had been oozing from his nose.

To Mend Sheet Music

The best way to mend sheet music is to paste a thin layer of mullage on a piece of tissue paper and close the torn edges with it. Tissue paper, wet, is also good as a plaster for slight wounds.

DEMOCRATS GATHER FROM EVERY STATE

NATIONAL EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MEET IN CHICAGO.

Went into Session This Morning—A Bolt in the Party If An Attempt Is Made to Side-track Silver—Bimetallists Agitate Question of a New Wing.

Chicago, July 20.—[Special]—The democratic national executive committee went into session this morning. Every state in the union is represented. The meeting is executive.

Long before the hour set for the meeting the Sherman House was crowded with democrats from all parts of the country, discussing questions of interest to the party.

Above all in importance, was the talk of the threatened bolt of the silver organizations if the democratic committee makes an attempt to side-track silver.

A committee from the American Bimetallist union and the Ohio Valley Bimetallist League met this morning and discussed action to be taken providing the silver question is not properly treated.

Those on the inside insist that the bimetallists will withdraw their support from the democratic party and form a new national party. This sort of talk is increasing this morning.

Many of the bimetallist delegates now say they have no fear that the democratic committee will take any step looking toward shelving the silver question, and that there will be no clash.

DREW CASH; LAST SEEN

Farmer Residing Near Beloit Disappears Very Suddenly—Son Reports to Police.

Beloit, Wis., July 20.—[Special]—James Quixley, a farmer living just east of the city, has been reported to the police as missing. A son of Mr. Quixley informed Officer Scheibel this morning that his father came to Beloit yesterday, and after drawing out $35 from the Second National bank, disappeared. The son says he may be visiting a brother who resides at Madison, but they are alarmed, as he said nothing of going away when he left home.

Frank E. Short, a well-known Beloit young man, was united in marriage, Tuesday, to Miss Elizabeth Hammond of Rosendale. The ceremony was performed at the residence of Charles Seymour, uncle of the bride, by Rev. Wallace Short of Evansville, brother of the groom. The couple have arrived at Beloit, and will occupy the groom's new residence, 945 Church street, where they will be at home to their many friends after August 3. Mr. Short has been an employee at Stiles & Rogers' grocery store for the last four years, and Miss Hammond has just resigned a position as teacher in Ripon.

Electricity for Farm Work.

The German government has placed some of its lands at the disposal of experimenters, who are trying to discover the best methods of applying electric power in agriculture. Both in Germany and in France agricultural societies are encouraging farmers to study, practically, what is called "agricultural electrical engineering." Wind power and water power are utilized to produce electrical energy, which can be transmitted by wire to any desired place on the farm, and employed to drive plows, pumps and threshing machines, and for many other purposes. Gas and petroleum motors also coming into use for agricultural purposes in Germany.

Horses and Men.

Study of the relation between the total length of life and the time required to reach maturity has brought out an interesting comparison between men and horses. A horse at five years is said to be, comparatively, as old as a man at twenty, and may be expected to behave, according to equine standards, after the manner of the average college student following human standards. A ten-year-old horse resembles, as far as age and experience go, a man of forty, while a horse which has attained the ripe age of thirty-five is comparable with a man of ninety years.

A Singular Tree.

The "Azyriz" is a tree, the leaves of which are green above and white and cottony beneath. When rain is in the air the leaves reverse themselves. It is a French tree, with sweetly scented white flowers and a red berry. It grows to about 24 feet in height, and announces rain or sunshine with absolute certainty. If its leaves are green, take your walking-stick; but should they be white, then certainly take your umbrella.

The Queen's Double.

The Queen's double is an elderly woman who acts as pew-opener at a church in North London, and so exact is the resemblance that it makes all new members of the congregation exclaim. Strangely enough, she is the exact age of the Queen, and became a widow in the same year that the Prince Consort died.

ENJOY A PLEASANT OUTING

Mr. and Mrs. Williams Return From Overland Trip

Doorkeeper of the House of Representatives and Mrs. E. S. Williams returned last evening from a unique trip to Watertown, S. D., which has covered a period of two months. The entire trip was made with a horse and wagon and was greatly enjoyed. Mr. and Mrs. Williams left Janesville on May 18 last, and did not reach their destination until June 14, being delayed at one place seven days on account of the bad condition of the roads. After a visit at Watertown the return trip was commenced on July 1, and was found to be even pleasanter than the outward one had been. Mr. Williams took especial notice of the crops of the several localities passed through and reports them as being in excellent condition. The corn crop in Iowa was found to run more uniform than in the other states through which their route took them.

ADMIRAL DEWEY NOW AT TRIESTE

WORD RECEIVED AT WASHINGTON THIS MORNING.

United States Minister Harris and Staff Call and Pay Respects—The Hero of Manila Enjoys Splendid Health—American Consuls in Austria Also Visit Him.

Washington, July 20.—[Special]—Admiral Dewey has notified the navy department that he arrived at Trieste this morning.

Trieste, July 20.—[Special]—The Olympia, with Dewey aboard, arrived this morning.

As soon as the Olympia dropped anchor, United States Minister Harris and staff went aboard to pay their respects to the admiral. They received a hearty welcome.

The American consuls in Austria also called on Dewey.

The admiral is in splendid health. He says he will stay here about two weeks. He is not sure about going to Carlsbad, but wants to visit Vienna. Dewey has received no official welcome.

DECLINES THE HONOR

Paris Dispatch Says Ambassador Porter Will Not Accept War Portfolio.

New York, July 20.—[Special]—A World's Paris dispatch says: "Ambassador Porter will not accept the war portfolio. He was offered the position, but has refused."

FORECAST OF WEATHER

Chicago, July 20.—[Special]—Forecast for Wisconsin:

Fair tonight; Friday continued warm.

Little Violence at Cleveland.

Cleveland, O., July 20.—The strike situation did not change materially Wednesday. The men declare their intention of remaining out until the company agrees to take back every man discharged. Violence was restricted to egg and stone throwing. No one was seriously hurt.

Chicago After Convention.

Chicago, July 20.—This city will make a bid for the next democratic convention at the meeting of the national committee today. This course was decided upon last night at an informal conference of local democratic leaders held in the headquarters of the state committee.

Mrs. Cullup Going to Paris.

Indianapolis, Ind., July 20.—Mrs. William A. Cullup of Vincennes has been appointed by Gov. Mount an honorary commissioner to the Paris exposition to represent the women of Indiana. Mrs. Cullup has spent much time abroad.

Reward to the Philippines.

New York, July 20.—Major Gen. Otis is pursuing the Spanish policy to weaken the Philippines. He has offered a reward of $50 Mexican silver (about $30 in American currency) to every rebel native who shall surrender to the United States firearms of any description.

Hope to Release Prisoners.

Manila, July 20.—The Spanish commission charged with negotiating for the release of Spanish prisoners held by the Filipinos expect to return to Tarlac soon with full authority to secure the release of all the prisoners.

Insurgents Concealed on the Bank of the Rio Grande fired on the gunboat Laguna de Bay, killing one soldier and wounding two. The gunboat trained a Gatling gun upon the shore and quickly dispersed the insurgents.

Troops to Return from Cuba.

Washington, July 20.—In order to relieve the exposure of American troops to yellow fever and other diseases in Cuba the president, upon the recommendation of Gen. Miles and sanction of Gen. Brooke, has directed that five battalions of troops be withdrawn from the island.

Crew of Twelve May Be Lost.

Halifax, N. S., July 20.—The Gloucester schooner Hattie N. Worcester has been wrecked at Sable Island. The fate of twelve of her crew is in doubt.

STREET CAR MEN BECOME VIOLENT

Talk of Calling Out the Militia.

RECRUITS JOINED STRIKERS DURING THE NIGHT.

Two Regiments of Soldiers Hold Them.

seives In Readiness For a Call—Labors In a Frenzied Mood—Tie-Up of Other Lines Expected—In Brooklyn the Situation is Unchanged and Cars Are Running On All Lines, But Not On Schedule Time.

New York, July 20.—[Special]—Violence is today the chief feature of the street car strike.

There is talk of calling out the militia and it is said that two regiments are under order to hold themselves in readiness for the call.

In Brooklyn the situation is unchanged. Cars are running on all the lines, but not on schedule time.

In Manhattan all underground trolley lines are running about the same as usual.

The strikers say that many recruits joined them during the night and that they expect to tie up some of the other lines today.

New York, July 20.—Greater New York is threatened with a complete tie-up of its transportation facilities. During the last twenty-four hours the situation has become much more serious. The strikers reached over into New York city when the men began going out on the Metropolitan system. With the strike, lawlessness and disorder came into New York.

In Brooklyn, despite the confident utterances of the trolley managers, the situation is becoming more serious. The extreme to which the striking men are ready to go is shown by the attempt to destroy the elevated structure by the use of dynamite. Twenty-one men have been arrested for this attempt, and the police allege that a carefully planned dynamite conspiracy has been discovered. Chief of Police Dewey has made an investigation of this alleged conspiracy and believes in it. The men arrested on suspicion of attempting to blow up the Fifth Avenue elevated were taken into custody upon his express order. They were all held in bonds to answer to the charge of conspiracy.

The strikers announce that the engineers, firemen, dynamo men and mechanics of the power houses, both in Brooklyn and in New York, will refuse to work, and in this way tie up all the electric lines in this city. The dissatisfaction is spreading to the cable systems. Several gripmen abandoned their cars on the crowded Broadway line. The men on the Manhattan elevated are also becoming restless, and the strike managers predict that within forty-eight hours that immense system of interurban transportation will be in the grip of the strikers.

The Brooklyn police declare that the rioting Wednesday was infinitely worse than any that has taken place in the city. The crowds were very much greater and more anxious for a fight.

Every policeman in New York is being held in reserve. Chief Dewey is less confident of maintaining order without the use of the militia than he was twenty-four hours ago, and it is reported that Gov. Roosevelt will come to New York and have a conference with the police officials regarding the necessity of the militia.

Chief Dewey announced that in all probability the Manhattan policemen who have been serving in Brooklyn since Sunday last would be brought back to New York and their places filled by members of the state militia. Four hundred officers are guarding the elevated railroad in Brooklyn.

General Master Workman John N. Parsons offered a reward of $500 for any legal proof that a legitimate striker has engaged in violence against human life, such as the use of dynamite or other atrocious proceedings.

BRITAIN WOULD ANNEX SAMOA.

This Said to Be the Desire of the Salisbury Government.

Berlin, July 20.—German diplomats and politicians are firmly convinced that it is Great Britain's desire to solve the Samoan problem by annexing the islands to the possessions of the British crown. It is considered here that the London Times' report that the American chief justice, William Chambers, is to be replaced by a man from New Zealand is a "feeler" put forth by the British government in order to ascertain how a proposal to annex Samoa to New Zealand would be received.

Great Western Sighted.

Gloucester, Mass., July 20.—Capt. William Sloan of the schooner Cecil H. Lowe reports that July 24, while off Sable Island, he sighted the sloop Great Western, in which Howard Blackburn of this port is making an attempt to cross the ocean. The Great Western was twenty-two miles southwest of Sable Island and everything apparently was in good shape.

CAUGHT IN CUPID'S MESHES.

Heise-McDonough

Last evening at 6:30 o'clock a wedding was performed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Poonichen, 118 Lincoln street. The interested parties were Herman A. Heise, a nephew of the host and hostess, and Miss Katie McDonough, both of Evansville, Wis. The ceremony was performed in the presence of only a few of the relatives and friends Rev. W. W. Woodside, pastor of the First M. E. church, officiating. Miss Mattie Poonichen acted as bridesmaid and George F. Kueck as best man. After the happy pair had received the congratulations of their friends, the guests partook of a dainty wedding supper to which all did ample justice. The groom formerly resided in Janesville and during his residence here was employed on the Janesville Journal and is now engaged in the newspaper business at Evansville, in which city Mr. and Mrs. Heise will make their future home. Both are well and favorably known and their host of friends wish them all the happiness and prosperity the most sanguine could anticipate.

Scott-Grave.

Yesterday afternoon Municipal Judge Charles L. Fifield was summoned from Athletic park, where he was attending the ball game, to the court room to tie a nuptial knot. It being his first marriage ceremony, he naturally left the ball grounds in good humor. In short order the judge pronounced the words that made Peter S. Scott and Miss Frances Grave man and wife. They were attended by Miss Nora Garde as bridesmaid and Chester Garde as best man. The bride is a resident of the town of Newark and the groom resides in the town of Avon. The newly married couple left on the 6 o'clock train yesterday for their home in the town of Avon.

SERIOUS SPLIT THREATENED.

Silver Men and Democratic National Committee in Conflict.

Chicago, July 20.—A serious rupture between the radical silver forces of the democratic party and the leaders of the national committee is impending. Its scope will depend upon today's action by the committee. The bimetallic conference representing the Ohio Valley clubs last night sent an ultimatum to ex-Gov. Stone, as acting chairman of the national committee, demanding a revision of the sentence of dismissal of P. J. Devlin, editor of the Bulletin. The message to Stone is said to have been threatening in its tone, and the fact that it received the endorsement of the bimetallic committee and a number of the best-known silver men in the country as well gives it peculiar significance.

The silver men say they will oppose Stone's plan to reorganize the national committee, and arranged to send Willis J. Abbot of New York into the committee as the proxy for White of Washington. Mr. Abbot will lead the opposition to Stone. He will oppose any attempt that may be made by the Missouri ex-governor to change the rules. In this, by the way, he may be supported by Dr. Norton, who is John R. McLean's proxy. Mr. McLean is said to have instructed Dr. Norton to fight any attempt to change rules.

The relations between the radicals and conservatives are so seriously strained that it looks as if something must snap.

It is admitted on both sides that Mr. Bryan alone can restore harmony, and even he may have trouble in doing so. Both sides regard him as their champion and may follow his advice. His coming may temporarily avert a big party split.

The National Bimetallic league decided to demand that the committee adopt its plan of organization.

Chicago platform democrats from New York issued a statement claiming recognition and denouncing Tammany.

French Women Smoke.

The Duchess d'Uzes and the Marchioness de la Rochefoucauld now publicly take a cigarette after dinner. Statistics have been taken in France of the spread of the habit of smoking and it has been discovered that within the last year the cigarette, and even the pipe has found an enormous increase in female votaries. The statistics show that $97,000,000 cigarettes are yearly consumed in France.

ALGER TO LEAVE THE CABINET

Secretary of War Has Tendered His Resignation.

NO OFFICIAL STATEMENT MADE

Neither the President nor Secretary Alger Will Discuss the Matter—Possibility That the General Will Retire from Politics—His Probable Successor.

Washington, July 20.—Secretary of War Russell A. Alger of Michigan has tendered his resignation. It is to take effect at the pleasure of President McKinley. The date has been set, however, for Aug. 1.

Secretary Alger returned from New Jersey Tuesday night, where he had been a guest of Vice-President Hobart.

SECRETARY ALGER.

He called at the white house Wednesday morning, accompanied by Mrs. Alger, remained a few minutes, and said upon leaving that he had not resigned. Now he permits the rumor of his resignation to go unchallenged. No official statement as to the cause of the resignation can be obtained, as both Mr. McKinley and Mr. Alger refuse to discuss the matter.

Gen. Alger will go out of the cabinet with a determination, it is said, to retire from politics. He is thoroughly disgusted and disheartened. He is represented to have informed the president when his resignation was under discussion recently that he could not leave public life without making a statement. His friends say that this was influential in prolonging his hold upon the war portfolio.

The secretary authorized the statement that he was not prepared to make any announcement of his purpose, and absolutely declined to give any expression for publication. He says that he is not ready to state his side, and that alleged interviews with him could be denounced as pure fabrications.

The president and Mrs. McKinley will leave soon for a visit to upper New York and will be absent a couple of weeks. Formal acceptance of the resignation may not be made until after Mr. McKinley returns.

Gen. Alger's successor will not be announced, it is believed, until after the president's return. It is rumored in administration circles that the president desires a New Yorker for the office. In this connection the name of Elihu Root is suggested. In case the president can see his way clearly to going outside of New York he may select Gen. James H. Wilson of Delaware, who is now in Cuba. Gen. Horace S. Porter, at present ambassador to France, is understood to be a candidate for the portfolio, but his chances are not considered bright.

A close friend of the president said positively that Mr. McKinley had not asked Secretary Alger's resignation. Mr. Meiklejohn, the assistant secretary of war, is at present supposed to be in Wisconsin, whither he went two weeks ago to make a personal inspection of the Fox River improvements. He has been notified of what has happened and is expected to return to Washington to assume charge of the war department until such time as the president shall name a permanent secretary. Secretary Alger's departure from the cabinet will leave in it only three of those members who entered it at the beginning of the administration—namely, Messrs. Gage, Long and Wilson. The number of changes that have occurred in the two and a half years of its life has been very unusual. Six cabinet officers in all have resigned their portfolios, either to retire to private life or to accept other positions of honor and trust at the hands of the president. These include Secretaries of State Sherman, who went out because of ill-health and advanced age, and Day, who accepted a United States judgeship; Attorney-General McKenna, who accepted a position on the Supreme court bench of the United States; Postmaster-General Gary, who retired because of ill-health, and Secretary Bliss of the interior department, who returned to New York and resumed active connection with business affairs.

Men Who May Succeed Alger. Washington, July 20.—President McKinley refuses to give any hint as to the probable successor to Secretary of War Alger. Many persons are suggested as likely to be named as chief of the important department, but the most prominent among them is Theodore Roosevelt, governor of New York. Among other possibilities for the war portfolio are Gen. Horace Porter, ambassador to France; Gen. Harrison Gray Otis, Assistant Secretary Meiklejohn, Attorney-General Griggs, Adj.-Gen. Corbin, Elihu Root, the well-known New York lawyer; James H. Wilson, now governor of Matanzas.

Foul-Smelling Catarrh.

Catarrh is one of the most obstinate diseases, and hence the most difficult to get rid of.

There is but one way to cure it. The disease is in the blood, and all the sprays, washes and inhaling mixtures in the world can have no permanent effect whatever upon it. Swift's Specific cures Catarrh permanently, for it is the only remedy which can reach the disease and force it from the blood.

Mr. B. P. McAllister, of Harrodsburg, Ky., had Catarrh for years. He writes: "I could see no improvement whatever, though I was constantly treated with sprays and washes, and different inhaling remedies. In fact, I could feel that each winter I was worse than the year previous. Finally it was brought to my notice that Catarrh was a blood disease, and after thinking over the matter, I saw it was unreasonable to expect to be cured by remedies which only reached the surface. I then decided to try S. S. S., and after a few bottles were used, I noticed a perceptible improvement. Continuing the remedy, the disease was forced out of my system, and a complete cure was the result. I advise all who have this dreadful disease to abandon their local treatment, which has never done them any good, and take S. S. S., a remedy that can reach the disease and cure it."

To continue the wrong treatment for Catarrh is to continue to suffer. Swift's Specific is a real blood remedy, and cures obstinate, deep-seated diseases, which other remedies have no effect whatever upon. It promptly reaches Catarrh, and never fails to cure even the most aggravated cases.

THIS DAY IN HISTORY.

1394—Petrarch born; died 1374.
1854—Caroline Anne Southey, poet and novelist, widow of the laureate, died; born 1787.
1870—Beginning of the Franco-Prussian war. French troops marched to the frontier, and Napoleon's declaration of war was received and acted upon in Berlin. The war grew out of dispute over the succession to the throne of Spain, although this was a mere pretext, as the bitterest feeling had existed between the countries for many years. Napoleon, however, has been charged with forcing a crisis in order to produce internal harmony and strengthen his tottering throne.
1887—Byronus Cobb, Jr., the novelist, died in Hyde Park, Mass.; born in Waterville, Me., 1822.
1893—General John G. Walker, a veteran of the regular army and of the Confederacy, died in Washington; born 1823.
1897—Jean Ingelow, British poet and novelist, died in London; born 1830.

GOV. SCOFIELD'S POSITION.

The Madison State Journal publishes the following editorial:

"Governor Scofield also tells us he is not a candidate. This expression in American politics, when it means anything, means that he will not make efforts to get the office. It does not mean he would not accept it. It means that he will not send his friends and appointees scurrying over the state to secure delegates. Governor Scofield is a sincere man, and does what he says. An argument for his re-nomination and re-election is the fact that the other state officers would conclude their terms at the same time with the executive; and so the practice of a full new administration coming and going be restored.

"The convention is some ways ahead, as he himself remarks. There have been two precedents in Wisconsin for a third term. Gov. Rusk's vindication for his conduct of the Milwaukee riots contributed to his long term. Gov. Fairchild was a marked success following the war.

The critical element in the present situation would be the executive's relations to his friends who are already in the field—Senator Dennett, Lieut. Gov. Stone and others—but Gov. Scofield's attitude safeguards him from criticism at this point. No one who knows the keen sense of honor of Gov. Scofield can imagine him, under present conditions inciting or allowing his friends to 'hustle for delegates.' The campaigns of the other candidates will go on. Their delegates will be at the state convention with enthusiasm. No doubt districts will send Scofield delegates, unless that gentleman shall conclude he would not accept a re-nomination. In the course of proceedings the re-nomination of the present executive might seem judicious to the party. Gov. Scofield's health is improving constantly and he is in growing favor. Moreover there is something about the honor bound to fascinate the best man who ever held so high a position. Gov. Scofield's attitude is sincere and fairly expressed when he says he is not a candidate. No man who wants the office will be wronged by him. Let the months roll by."

CURRENT PRESS COMMENT

Young Mayor Harrison seems to know a thing or two, after all—one of them being Altgeld—Milwaukee Journal.

The 'able-bodied' man who is without a job, these days is the kind that shudders when work is mentioned—Pittsburg Times.

Getting hot at the coal combine will not keep your water pipes from freezing next winter—Milwaukee Sentinel.

The American people can't have a Russian system of press censorship maintained under the folds of the American flag; but they can't have a clique of irresponsible youngsters who are commissioned to write for the newspapers shouldering Gen. Otis out of the management of the Philippine campaign. They will wait till they hear more about the merits of the controversy between these youngsters and the responsible representatives of the United States at Manila before they permit themselves to reach any conclusion prejudicial to Gen. Otis—Milwaukee Wisconsin.

Chicago Times-Herald—Not since the three tailors of Tooly street addressed the house of commons a petition of grievances, beginning "We the people of England," has there been anything to equal the vanity, effrontery and importance of the statement of the eleven correspondents censuring the censorship of their dispatches at Manila. In the entire outfit there is not a man, unless it be John F. Bass, who before the outbreak of our war with Spain knew a flying battery from a flying kite or a twelve-pounder from a twelve-pound baby.

If General Otis had been in charge of the censorship at Key West in the early days of the war the people would have been saved much unnecessary worry. Time has shown the utter falsity of the yellow fakes sent from Key West and Cuba, and there is no reason to believe that much the same class of matter would not come from Manila if the correspondents had their way.

Wisconsin's quota of army officers will soon be appointed. The recommendations will be made by the colonels commanding the various Wisconsin regiments during the Spanish war, and not by the governor.

General H. G. Otis and General T. M. Anderson, both of whom served under General E. S. Otis in the Philippines deny the truth of the statements made by the newspaper correspondents, and uphold General Otis. General H. G. Otis is a newspaper man, but says the censorship is not unjust.

It is now believed that the Hon. Dan Coughlin, the Hon. Mr. Armstrong, the Hon. Willie Tascott, and the Hon. Man Who Smote B. Patterson have joined forces and formed a mysterious disappearance trust.

The English racing authorities have temporarily suspended J. Todd Sloan for subordination, and there is no reason to believe that international complications would follow if the temporary ruling was made permanent.

According to Washington dispatches 504 men enlisted in the volunteer army on Tuesday, despite the "round robin" of the newspaper correspondents.

Work on Green Bay's new opera house will soon be begun. The building will cost $30,000, one-third of which was subscribed by citizens.

Who is running the war and the country anyway? General Otis and the president or a few newspaper correspondents?

WOMAN IN WHITE WEDS.

Heroine of the Chicago Convention Marries a Mine Owner.

"The woman in white," who made herself the most picturesque character of the Chicago convention of 1890, when she almost stamped the delegates for Boies, is married. The other day she became the wife of H. S. Sternberger, a wealthy silver mine owner of Cripple Creek.

In 1896 Miss Murray was an editor and a Democrat. She was an enthusiastic partisan of ex-Governor Horace Boies of Iowa and supported him at all times through the medium of the

MRS. MINNIE MURRAY STERNBERGER. Nashua (Ia.) Reporter, of which she was editor and part proprietor. Miss Murray was so ardent in his behalf that she attended the Chicago convention and electioneered in his favor among the national delegates from one end of the great hall to the other. The scene when she led the cheering for Boies will be distinctly remembered.

Miss Murray accepted the situation after her favorite was defeated and labored faithfully in her editorial capacity in the interests of Bryan and Sewall.

In October, 1897, during the Iowa state campaign, Miss Murray not only supported Fred White, the Democratic candidate for governor, but stumped the state for him, addressing immense gatherings, especially in the rural districts.

Miss Murray that was more widely known than any other woman in Iowa. When she decided to become Mrs. Sternberger she sold out her interest in the Nashua Reporter.

SAVED HALF.

Steamer Wrecked, Out in Two and a New Bow Built.

A remarkable feat in marine architecture has been accomplished at WallSEND-on-Tyne. Last autumn the steamer Milwaukee, one of the largest cargo vessels afloat, owned by Messrs. Elder, Dempster & Co. of Liverpool, ran ashore on the "scars" of Cruden, a line of half-hidden reefs on the Aberdeenshire coast. The divers who were sent down reported that there was a rock 30 feet long and 8 feet in height standing through the bottom of the vessel in the main hold. In these circumstances the idea of saving the whole ship was at once abandoned, and it was determined to cut the vessel at the after end of the main hatch, the bulkheads in the stern division of the steamer being undamaged, no water having reached the engines. The method resorted to for severing the vessel was the application of successive charges of dynamite, but so excellent was the quality of the steel that no less than 140 pounds of dynamite was required to burst the plates asunder. Eventually the after portion of the huge steamer was detached and safely floated, thus preserving the engines and boilers and leaving 160 feet of the forward section on the rocks. The salvaged half of the Milwaukee was towed to the Tyne and docked; the original builders of the vessel were entrusted with the rebuilding of the forward and missing portion. This work has been completed with great expedition. Such a feat stands without parallel in the history of the sea. Vessels have been cut in two and lengthened amidships, but there is no instance on record of half a steamer being saved from a wreck and then converted into a new boat by the rebuilding of the missing portion.

PREACHER EARL.

If No Posthumous Heir Is Born to Lord Stafford.

The new Earl of Stafford is one of the most popular clergymen in England, with a record of having performed more marriages than any other of his order. It is, however, premature to call this Rev. Hon. Byng Lord Stafford, as there may yet be a direct heir to the unfortunate earl, who was killed recently by a railway train. The Byngs are a needy family, the earldom, such as it is, being extremely difficult to maintain according to aristocratic ideas. But when the late earl wedded the very rich Mrs. Colgate of New York the bargain was a mutual exchange of title and support, and the disappointment of the countess at this turn of affairs can readily be appreciated. Should Lady Stafford present herself with a posthumous heir to the title, she will have some consolation for the shock and unhappiness which she has been forced to suffer ever since her marriage last January. Ambitious American women pay dearly for titled husbands, yet they insist on having them.

Quiller-Couch at Work and Play.

A. T. Quiller-Couch (Q.) is still living his open-air life overlooking the water at Fowey, Cornwall, England, whither he retired about ten years ago, after a most unhappy experience in London. He went to the metropolis to write a story a week for a prosperous periodical. He associated almost exclusively with the literary set; he went to receptions, theatres and clubs and put off writing his story until the last day in the week. He stood this sort of life as long as he could and then went back to his dogs and garden, sailboat and moors. He writes daily until about 1 o'clock, when he puts on a sweater and goes out to have a good time. Sometimes he sails, again he walks, and he varies his amusements by coaching a local rowing team. At Oxford, in the '90s, he rowed on his 'varsity crew, and he has kept up his athletics ever since. He says he will never again live in London. The atmosphere stifles him.

Wants to Call
Our Country by
This Name.

Professor Sylvester Waterhouse, the man who has come forward with a scheme to abbreviate
the official name of this country from the United States of North America to Usqua, is a venerable professor of St. Louis. He has taught Greek in the Washington university for 42 years and is now 70 years old. He can talk Greek like a Socrates, but he does most of his thinking in the live languages.

Usqua is not a Greek derivative, however. The name which Professor Waterhouse would substitute for the one now applied to this land of the free he manufactures by taking the initials of the five words United States of North America.

His argument is that this cumbersome title is used only in official documents and that the shorter ones, the United States, Columbia and American, are all ineffectual. There are several countries composed of united states, he says, and at least one which is called the United States of Colombia. America we share with the Canadian and the Patagonian.

He further objects to our official name because it is singular in sense and plural in form. It permits neither personal nor adjective derivatives.
Usqua would remedy all these defects.
We could speak of our country as Usa-na, the land of the brave and the free;
of ourselves as stout hearted, loyal Usquinians and of all our belongings as Usonian.

Some of the St. Louis people seem to take Professor Waterhouse and his suggestion with much gravity, but it is doubtful if the scheme receives anything more than passing notice from editorial paragraphists.

What's In a Name?

Deer Isle, Me., smiles good naturedly
at the mistake of some city papers, which call it "Deer Island," as though having in mind Boston's penal colony, and speak of it as a "typical fisherman village."

The Deer Isle Press says: "Deer Isle may be a 'typical fisherman village,' yet we are tony just the same. Some of our citizens wear kid gloves to drive oxen, while others wear boiled shirts and cuffs to plant their gardens."

POISON IN PURE WATER.

Seeming Paradox Explained by a German Scientist.

There is considerable danger, according to a German medical newspaper, which recently discussed the effect of drinking chemically pure water—that is, water containing no dissolved salts or gases. The action of pure distilled water withdraws salts from the tissues, which swell up by imbibition, and is a dangerous protoplasmic poison. When swallowed it causes a swelling up of the superficial layers of the gastric epithelium, which die and are exfoliated. That washing out the stomach with distilled water has a bad effect is "proved." Really pure water would be worse still. Waters occur in nature purer than ordinary distilled water, and hence the practical importance of the subject to medicine. Water obtained from clear, natural ice may cause gastric catarrh,
and vomiting when given to patients to suck. Artificially made ice never produces such pure water on melting, and is therefore safer. Guide books usually warn travelers not to drink water from snow, glaciers or clear mountain torrents, which, instead of quenching thirst, often produces gastritis. The most remarkable instance is that of a spring at Gastein, which has been known for centuries as the "Poison Spring," and no one will drink its water, though no poison has ever been found in it. The simple fact is that the Gastein water is purer than distilled water, and has in consequence the same injurious effects.

Retrospection in New Hampshire.

The governor of New Hampshire alleges that regard for Christian institutions has so fallen away in his state that there are towns without church services, villages where the children are all unbaptized and communities where no service is said for the dead and where marriage is dealt with only as a civil contract, witnessed before a justice of the peace.
